CAREER SUMMARY

Drew Stange is the Chief Executive Officer and Managing Broker of NAI FMA Realty. He is responsible for overseeing the operational aspects of the firm and has broad knowledge of operating issues in a variety of business situations. His goal is to ensure NAI FMA provides thorough and efficient real estate services and optimum professional assistance each time a NAI FMA associate interacts with a client.

In addition to his duties as CEO, Drew is actively focused on growing the business, enhancing financial performance and supporting the other members of the executive leadership team. He is active in many civic and charitable organizations and works diligently to promote and support real estate and business growth in the Lincoln area.

BACKGROUND AND EXPERIENCE

Drew started his career working for a regional public accounting firm then began his career in real estate in 1989 when he joined NAI FMA Realty. His financial expertise is combined with more than 35 years of experience managing, leasing, and selling a diverse portfolio of commercial assets.
